35.2.1.7 When any of his or her competitors wear Doboks without their belts in the stadium.

35.2.1.8 When any of his or her competitors change their clothes in public. Competitors must use the designated changing facilities in the stadium.

35.2.1.9 When drinking alcoholic beverages or smoking whilst wearing a Dobok.

35.2.2 Disqualification

35.2.2.1 When any competitor in his or her team mocks or insults an opponent while watching the match.

35.2.2.1 When any competitor in his or her team creates an unpleasant atmosphere for fellow competitors through the use of instruments such as horns or bugles, while watching the match.

35.2.2.1 When receiving 3 or more warnings.

35.2.3 Suspension of rights and removal of qualifications

35.2.3.1 When entering the stadium under the influence of drugs or alcohol.

35.2.3.2 When the coach does not obey the commands and decisions of the referee or when the coach uses offensive language or behaves in an offensive or aggressive manner, challenging the official match result.

35.2.3.3 When receiving 3 or more disqualifications.

The disqualified coach shall have his or her tournament ID card confiscated immediately and will not be allowed to work inside the stadium until his or her qualifications are reinstated.

The coach may even be deprived of his or her qualifications as a coach according to the decision of the Tournament Adjudication Committee and the ITF Statute & Ethic Committee.

The Tournament Adjudication Committee and the ITF Statute & Ethic Committee reserve the right to punish the offending coach with a period of disqualification according to the seriousness of the violations. The disqualification may be for the period of the on-going tournament, for a period of 2 to 3 years, or with an indefinite long-term disqualification from all tournaments.

Article 45. Most Technical Awards, Awards for Team Champion and Most Honorable Awards

The competition of less than 3 competitors or teams shall not count for Highest Technical Award or Overall Team Champion.

45.1 Highest Technical Award

45.1.1 Trophies will be given to the competitors with most gold medal counts awarded in individual competition.

45.1.2 When the number of gold medals is even, silver and bronze medals will be counted.

45.1.3 In case the numbers of gold, silver and bronze medals are the same, the gold, silver and bronze medals for Pattern, Sparring, Self-Defense Routine, Special Technique and Power Breaking will be counted.

45.2 Overall Team Champion Award

The medals gained from each item are counted as one gold medal only. The trophy shall be awarded in the same principle as in the Highest Technical Award.

45.3 Most Honorable Award

Trophies will be given to the oldest male and female competitors among those participating in Veteran Championship.

Article 46. Awards for Champion of Country

46.1 Trophies will be awarded to the country with the most gold medal counts gained in individual and team events. (Medals from one item in team event will count as one only.)

46.2 In case of the number of gold medal being the same, then the silver and bronze medals will be counted, by which trophies will be awarded.

46.3 In case of the number of gold, silver and bronze medals being the same, the gold medals will be counted for Pattern, Sparring, Self-Defense Routine, Special Technique and Power Breaking. If it is still the same, silver and bronze medals will be counted.

49.2 Deciding the winner

Jury President will decide the winner in accordance with the flag signal of five Judges.

49.2.1 When three or more Corner Referees give a decision in favor of one Competitor, then that Competitor is the winner.

49.2.2 When two Corner Referees give a decision in favor of one Competitor, one for the other and two for a draw, the Competitor who receives the two favored decisions is the winner.

49.2.3 When three or more Corner Referees say that it is a draw, it is the tied competition.

49.2.4 When two Corner Referees give a decision in favor of one Competitor, 2 for the other and 1 Corner Referee gives a draw, it is the tied competition.

49.2.5 When the competition is decided to be tied, extra performance of a pattern designated by Jury President will be repeated until the winner is decided.

Article 50. Team Event

50.1 Teams will perform one optional pattern and one designated pattern (the same pattern for the 2 competing teams but excluding optional pattern) selected by Jury

President in any format.

The team pattern competition, unlike the individual event, is the team performance which 5 competitors of a team enter the ring and demonstrate their teamwork. Hence, the technical movements should be performed collectively in accordance with the choreography. However, the technical aspects including fast and slow motions, continuous and connected motions should be executed as laid down in the Encyclopedia. Scoring will not commence until the command “Shi Jak” is given. Maximum of ten (10) seconds will be allowed for the team to arrive at their starting positions.

57.2.2 For Veteran, elimination and final bout will consist of 2 rounds of 1.5 minutes.

57.2.3 One-minute break shall be given between rounds.

57.3 Deciding the Winner

The Jury President shall decide who is the winner per the referees` decisions.

57.3.1 When three or more corner referees give a decision in favor of one Competitor, then that Competitor is the winner.

57.3.2 When two Corner Referees give a decision in favor of one Competitor, one Corner Referee for the other and one for a draw, the Competitor who receives the two favored decisions is the winner.

57.3.3 When two Corner Referees give a decision in favor of one Competitor and two Corner Referees give a draw, the Competitor who receives the two favored decisions is the winner.

57.3.4 When three or more Corner Referees say that it is a draw, then it is the tied competition.

57.3.5 When two Corner Referees give a decision in favor of one competitor and two Corner Referees for other competitor, then that competition is a draw.

57.3.6 When one corner referee gives a decision in favor of one competitor, two Corner Referees for a draw and one for other competitor, then that competition is a draw.

57.3.7. When the competition is tied, 1 minute extension will follow. If this results in a further draw, the competition for the gold points will take place. The competitor with the first scored points shall be the winner with disregard to timing and the competitor with three warnings or 1 yellow card without any scored points is the loser.

Article 58. Team Events

58.1 A team will be formed with disregard to competitors` degrees and weight.

58.2 A draw with the toss of a coin will decide which team to field in a competitor for the first bout, this process will alternate between the teams.

58.3 Duration of a bout

58.3.1 For Junior and Adult matches, each bout will be 1 round of two minutes.

58.3.2 For Veteran matches, each bout will be 1 round of 1.5 minutes.

58.4 Deciding the winner

58.4.1 For the team matches it will be same as in the individual matches. (Except for a tied match)

58.4.2 When a team wins a bout, it receives two points and 1 point for a draw. When a team accumulates six points it will be declared the winner without further matches.

58.4.3 When all five bouts are finished and the result is a draw, then each Coach will select a Competitor to spar an extra bout. The Team whose Competitor wins this bout will be the winner.

58.4.4 When extra bout results in a further draw, then extension and bout for golden points shall take place to decide the winner as in individual matches.

58.4.5 When a team has one member short at the time of competition then the opposing team will automatically be awarded two points. When a team has two members short, then the opposing team will automatically be awarded 4 points.

Article 59. Injury

59.1 When a competitor is injured during competition, the Centre Referee must stop the match and call the Doctor. After the injured competitor is treated, the Doctor must inform the Centre Referee as to whether that competitor could continue competing. The Doctor's decision is final.

59.2 Deciding the winner when the match cannot continue due to injury

59.2.1 When it is decided that the opponent is at fault for causing the injury, then the injured competitor will be declared the winner. The injured competitor does not continue to the next round of this discipline.

59.2.2 When it is decided that it is the fault of the injured competitor that caused his or her own injury, then the injured competitor's opponent will be declared the winner.

59.2.3 If both competitors are injured at the same time, and if both prove to be unfit to continue, the winner is the one who has more umpires' votes until match was stopped. If the competitors have even results, the jury president will decide the winner after consultation with the Ring Council complying with the resulting warnings and yellow cards to the present moment. The injured competitor does not continue to the next round of this discipline.

59.2.4 Until the decision for injured competitor has been made, the match cannot go on to the next round.

59.2.5 The competitor not accepting the doctor's decision shall be disqualified.

Article 60. Officials

63.3 For „Twiyono chagi” standard stand is used, approved by the ITF.

63.3.1 The tape must be of opaque material, paper or plastic and with a height of 70 cm.

63.3.2 There is used a plastic rebreakable board with dimensions 30x30, approved by the ITF.

Article 64. Scoring Criteria

64.1 There will be five Referees judging the attempt. Each Referee will be holding a red flag and a blue flag. After each attempt, the Referees will raise a red flag for an invalid attempt, a blue flag for a valid attempt, and no flag raised by a Referee who did not see properly the attempt and therefore could not make a judgment.

64.2 In the case that there is a draw in the judgment, for example, two red flags, two blue flags and one no flag raised. Then it is a split decision and that competitor will receive half the points counted for that attempt.

64.3 Each board moved to more than 90 degrees will score three points, each board moved less than 90 degrees scores 1 point.

64.4 A Twiyono chagi fully broken board will score three points. Each cracked or bent board will score one point.

64.5 A break is only valid when the competitor has adopted correct posture, technique, balance and correct breaking tool. And when the competitor has touched the hurdle fallen during the flying over kick, he/she is judged as scoring nil.

Article 65. Individual Events

65.1 Mode of Competition

65.1.1 Male and female can enter 5 items respectively.

65.1.2 Each competitor will have 1 attempt, only with 1 prejudging of distance allowed without touching the target. The competitor will be given 30 seconds to break. (Ready posture + prejudging + ready posture + breaking + ready posture)

65.2 Deciding the winner

65.2.1 When all the 5 items are completed, the scores and all points awarded to each competitor will be added up and the winner will be decided according to the highest accumulated points.

65.2.2 There will only be one 1st place winner, one 2nd place winner and one 3rd place winner will be chosen.

In the case that there is more than one competitor having the same score, the Jury President will choose an item by lottery for those involved to continue the competition, by increasing the height in minimum 5 cm., until the desired winner is decided. If the competitors are still tied the Jury President will choose by lottery another technique until the winner is decided.

Article 66. Team Events

66.1 Mode of Competition

66.1.1 A team will consist of five males and females respectively and one competitor from one team can enter each item only.

66.1.2 The mode of competition for all items is the same as in individual competition.

66.1.3 Each team performs one selected qualification technique. After successful performance (to score three points), the other competitors continue with the implementation of the other techniques.

66.2 Point awards for all items shall be same as in individual competition.

66.3 Deciding the winner

66.3.1 After the attempts of a team for all items, the points gained by each competitor will be added and the 1st, 2nd and 3rd places will be decided with the same method as in individual competition.

66.3.2 In the event of tie, the same method as in individual competition will be applied.

Article 69. Conditions

69.1 Each competitor performs a chosen Qualifying technique. All boards must be fully broken, then the competitor can continue with the implementation of other techniques

Article 70. Boards

70.1 Dimensions 30×30×2 (cm) – plastic rebreakable board

70.2 The referee must examine each board before each attempt.

Article 71. Scoring Criteria

71.1 There will be five Referees judging the attempt. Each Referee will be holding a red flag and a blue flag. After each attempt, the Referees will raise a red flag for an invalid attempt, a blue flag for a valid attempt, and no flag raised by a Referee who did not see properly the attempt and therefore could not make a judgment.

71.2 In the case that there is a draw in the judgment, for example, two red flags, two blue flags and one no flag raised. Then it is a split decision and that competitor will receive half the points counted for that attempt.

71.3 Each broken/separated board will count as 3 points and each bent/cracked board will count as 1 point.

71.4 When the competitor has not adopted his correct posture and balance and has not used correct breaking tool in spite of board being broken, then the result is not valid.

Article 72. Individual Events

72.1 Mode of Competition

72.1.1 Male can enter five and female can enter three, items respectively.

72.1.2 The competitor can begin with one ready posture and end with a different ready posture. Prejudging is optional; if a competitor does not want to do prejudging, he or she can go straight from ready stance-break-ready stance. The competitor will adopt a ready posture in the form of either an L-stance forearm guarding block posture or a sitting ready stance posture. On the command from the Referee the competitor will be allowed to make 1 prejudging, returns to ready posture, then attempt to break in one continuous movement, and returns to any ready posture upon completion of the attempt.

72.1.3 Upon the command signal, the competitor has 30 seconds to complete that item. (Ready posture + pre-judging + ready posture + break + ready posture).

72.1.4 The competitor can adjust the height of the boards before pre-judging. The adjusting of the height is not included in the time (30 seconds) for performing for break. Center line of board must be in line with the solar plexus.

72.1.5 Knife hand strike may be inwards or outwards.

72.1.6 A random eliminator may be used for qualifying purposes.

72.2. Deciding the winners

72.2.1 Points will be awarded per the numbers of the broken boards.

72.2.2 When the competitor has completed his or her attempt on all the 5 or 3 breaking items, his or her points will be added together. The competitors will be decided as the 1st place winner, 2nd place winner and 3rd place winner by order of points. Only one person will be chosen for the 1st, 2nd and the 3rd place. In the case that there are more than one competitor having the same number of points in the same placing, the Jury President will then choose one of the 5 or 3 items by lottery for the competitors concerned to further compete to decide the winner. If the competitors reach a number of maximum boards in one technique and the competition results are still equal, then the Jury President chooses a different technique, by lottery.

Article 73. Team Events

73.1 Mode of Competition

73.1.1 A competitor from one team can enter one item.

73.1.2 Mode of competition for all items is the same as in individual competition.

73.2 Point awards for items will be same as in individual competition.

73.3 Deciding the winner

After the competition for all items all the points gained by each competitor of a team will be added together and the 1st, 2nd and 3rd places will be decided as in the individual competition. In the case of two teams or more in the same medal placing, the winner will be decided as in individual competition, as every competitor performs one technique, which was previously noted without the right of a change.

Article 82. Deciding the winner

When a team has performed, the Jury President will be presented with the score sheets from the 5 judges. He will exclude the highest score and the lowest score, and will add up the points from the 3 remaining scores.

82.1 In case there are more than two teams with the same highest points, the teams concerned will further perform and compete amongst themselves until two top teams be selected to qualify for the final.

82.2 One 1st place, one 2nd place and one 3rd place winners will be decided from the final round of competition. In the case of two teams or more in the same medal placing, the winners will be decided per the highest points by adding the points gained from the elimination and final. When those points are the same, extra performance will take place until a winner is decided.

82.3 Two points will be deducted for each technique not performed by the team.

82.4 Two points will be deducted for two seconds under or over the time period; any more will result zero (0).

Article 83. Officials

- 1 Jury President
- 1-2 Jury Members
- 5 Referees
- 1 Timekeeper
- 1 Recorder

SECTION 18. PROTEST & DECISION

The Tournament Adjudication Committee will supervise all protest procedures. The Tournament Adjudication Committee includes the Chairmen of ITF Tournament Committee, ITF Umpire Committee and ITF Technical Committee.

The Chairman of Tournament Adjudication Committee must be the Chairman of ITF Tournament Committee.

In case of absence of its Chairman the member of Tournament Adjudication Committee appointed by the ITF will act.

If the decision cannot be reached by the ITF Umpire Committee than it will be referred to the Tournament Adjudication Committee.

Article 84. Protest

84.1 All written protests may be submitted to the Tournament Adjudication Committee. Only the Coach in charge of individual or a team can present a protest to the Jury President in his /her square.

84.1.1 Official protest form must be filled in and presented within 5 minutes from the end of the match.

84.1.2 Regulated protest fee (EUR 100) must be paid when presenting the protest. (If the protest is valid, then the protest fee will be returned to the coach.)

84.2 Jury President must submit the protest to the Tournament Adjudication Committee and explain its details.

84.3 A coach or team leader of the protesting team can make a brief oral presentation on the matter to the Tournament Adjudication Committee in support of his position. The coach or leader of the defending team is allowed a brief comment.

84.4 Video Protest

84.4.1 In the event of an objection against the decision of the jury during a match in the disciplines - pattern, sparring, self-defense, special technique and power test (individual and team) the coach may ask the Referee for an immediate review of the video of the "Committee on video protest".

84.4.1.1 The "Committee on video protest" consists of a minimum of 3 members, including the following

- Jury President of the corresponding ring
- A minimum one member of the Umpire Committee
- An umpire who is not involved with umpiring of the corresponding ring

84.4.2 When a coach asks to review the video record, the referee will approach to the coach and asks the reason for the request. The range of applications for video review is limited to:

84.4.2.1 In pattern (only after the end of the pattern)

- To appointing or not appointing "0" points

84.4.2.1 In sparring

- Valid 4 or 5 points techniques not awarded.
- Warning, yellow or red card not recorded by the Jury Table.
- Failure to award valid designated technique by the referee and the Jury panel.

84.4.2.1.3 In special technique and power test:

- Valid technique not awarded.

84.4.3 The scope of the request for an immediate review of a video is restricted to only one action that occurred within five (5) seconds to the moment the coach has asked for a review of the record. Once the coach has raised his card to request an immediate review of the video, it is assumed that he used his right to request such a review, regardless of the circumstances.

84.4.4 After completing the review of the video, the "Commission on the video protest" informs the referee of the final decision within one (1) minute after receiving a request to review a video.

84.4.5 Each coach has the right to request an immediate review of a video. If the request is granted and the contested issue is correct, the coach reserves the right to request a further review of a video during the current match. However, if the request of the coach is not satisfied then he loses his right to request a review of a video during the current match.

84.4.6 During one (1) competition, there is no limit on the total number of requests for review that a coach has the right to refer to a competitor.

84.4.7 The decision of the "Commission on the video protest" is final; not accepted are any further requests during the match or protests after the match.

84.4.8 In the event of an error by the umpires, related to a competitor or the points reporting system, each member of the judges may request a review and correction of decision in every moment of the match. Following the release of the referees from the playing arena, no one has the right to seek review or change of the decision.

84.4.9 In case of positive result of the review of the opposition, "Umpire Committee" examines the match at the end of the competition day and, if necessary, takes disciplinary measures against the ring council who supervised the match.

84.4.4.10 All money paid from protest and penalty during the Championship will be disbursed for the umpiring development of ITF.

Article 85. Decision

85.1 In order to give a correct decision, the Chairman of Tournament Adjudication Committee may call anyone (one by one) to give evidence on the protest (Jury President and Centre Referee of relevant Ring, Coaches of two teams). Umpires to be called one by one.

85.2 Tournament Adjudication Committee will decide whether to validate the match, or to repeat the match or to assign the victory of the match to the loser.

85.3 When the decision on the protest has been reached it will be informed to the parties concerned with its decision.

85.4 The winner cannot compete again before the decision of the Tournament Adjudication Committee.

85.5 Team or Individuals not accepting the decision made by the Tournament Adjudication Committee may result in having the whole team or individual disqualified from all further events of the Championship.

85.6 Follow-up procedures after the decision:

85.6.1 Mistakes in adjudication of the match may result in the decision being reversed.

85.6.2 When the Umpires committee considers that the referee/umpires have made an error in the application of the Rules, they can sanction it.

Article 86. Penalties for Withdrawal from Competition as Protest Means

In case of withdrawal of competitors or team from individual or team matches as means of protest

86.1 They will be automatically disqualified from that event.

86.2 They will be automatically disqualified from all further events of that championship.
